

REPORT ON THE BROOKS EXPEDITION

I am sorry to report that I have still not been able to identify the target of Brooks' current obsession. But it's big. He's pouring as many resources into this as he is into the singing career for his little honey. And I'm pretty much 100% certain that S.T. isn't in the loop on this one. This is all Brooks.

What I can tell you is that Sancho Dominguez has been tapped for it. That's his lieutenant. He doesn't trust anyone more than Dominguez. My guy on the inside says that Dominguez and his boys – there's about a dozen of them in all who are making at least motions towards tagging along on this joy ride – are referring to this as the "Big G".

And while I don't know their final destination, I do know their first stop: Merida. That's the capital of Yucatan.

They've also been hitting up local shops to find all the maps they can of the peninsula. I'm not sure how deep into the interior they're planning to go, but there's a lot unexplored territory for them to get lost in.
