

The Holy Truth of the Pyramid of Blood

The Greatest Lie that was every told by the Liar From Beyond was in the Name Which Was No Name. The epithet of Liar itself.

This is the great test of Faith. To see that that Greatest Lie is the only lie. For the Liar cloaks himself in that singularity of falsehood in order to shield itself from the unworthy. Only to the worthy is its Great Truth revealed. And only the worthy can hear the True harmony of its Song.

Thus, as one of the Chosen, as one of the Worthy, I am proud to proclaim the Great Truth: The Liar From Beyond is Gol-Goroth! From his Many Mouths the Great Truth is sprung, and in the land of Golxumal his Chosen people shall congregate and look upon him and feel humility in the great warmth of his Truth.

Thus was Great Gol-Goroth named the Fisher From Beyond. For he reaches forth into the worlds beyond Golxumal to find the Worthy and to return to them to the Home Which Was Destined For Them.

The Great Liar Trammel will not fear to kill those who seek to reveal his Lies, for the Lies he tells are without the Truth of the Liar From Beyond. Those who come to suspect the Great Liar have met with ill ends. Such was the fate of George Hyers, who never returned from the fabled lands of Dallol.

I must be careful if I wish to reach Golxumal. And reach it I must, for surely I am of the Chosen.

If you read these words, then it is because I have passed to Golxumal. Know ye that the path for your own redemption lies through Chichen Xoxul. Through the Pyramid of Blood. There you shall feel the Kiss of the Liar. The Kiss which is the promise of his Many Mouths.
